VALUABLE WORKS

RELATING TO THE

INDIAN TRIBES OF CANADA.

BY

DR. JOHN McLEAN,

(ROBIN RUSTLER.)

OF INTEREST TO THE SCIENTIST, AND STUDENT OF MISSIONS.

EXCELLENT READING FOR THE HOME AND FIRESIDE.

FULL OF STORIES OF THRILLING INTEREST FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

MAY BE OBTAINED THROUGH ANY BOOKSELLER.

WM. BRIGGS, PUBLISHER, TORONTO, CANADA.

WESLEYAN CONFERENCE OFFICE, 2 CASTLE STREET, CITY ROAD, LONDON, ENGLAND.

OR THE AUTHOR, PORT ARTHUR, ONTARIO, CANADA.

The Indians of Canada.

Cloth 351 Pages, 23 Illustrations, Price, $1.00.

Historical, instructive and peculiarly interesting.—The Empire.

A valuable contribution to Canadian literature that will be an authority on this interesting subject.—Christian Guardian.

Describes in an easy and fascinating manner the Indian customs, their camps and wigwams.—Guelph Mercury

There is no lack of variety in the book.—Manitoba Free Press

It has not a dull page from beginning to end.—Methodist Magazine.

The book is as entertaining as a story of Mayne Reid's.—The Bookseller (England).

The author has gathered the material from first sources.—American Antiquarian.

A bright and readable summary of literature relating to the Red Man.—North West Intelligencer.

No intelligent reader should be without this standard work.—Barrie Examiner.

A delightful book on our Indians.—The Young Canadian

The author has no prejudices or theories to bolster up, but describes things as he finds them.—American Anthropologist.

He gives us an insight into the life of the Red Man such as few others could give.—Canadian Gazette (Eng.)

I received your book and read it with great interest .... I hope you will carry on your researches. They will be very useful to students of religion and folklore.—F. Max Muller.

It contains much valuable information.—J. C. Pilling, Smithsonian Institution.

I am delighted with your book, and admire your position regarding the question of the Red Man at home.—Ojijatekha.

This is a book of fascinating interest, and will be read with avidity by most intelligent boys and girls.—Onward.

I read the book with great interest and pleasure.—Rev. E. K. Matheson, Battleford, N. W. T.

I like it very much. I scarcely left it until I had read it through.—Rev. J. H. Dyke, Henfryn, Ont.

I have THE INDIANS and prize it highly. It is a valuable book—Rev. F. A. Cassidy, M.A., Shidzuoka, Japan.

James Evans, Inventor of the Syllabic System of the Cree Language.

208 PAGES, CLOTH, 21 ILLUSTRATIONS, PRICE, 50c.

One of the most charming records of service it has been our privilege to read for a long time.—Wesleyan Methodist Magazine (England.)

Reads with all the charm of a romance.—Canadian Methodist Quarterly.

The life-story of the inventor of the syllabic character reads like a romance, and a very heroic romance at that—Canadian Methodist Magazine.

Dr. McLean has rescued a worthy name from the comparative oblivion that was gathering over it.—Christian Guardian.

The Hero of the Saskatchewan,

LIFE AMONG THE OJIBWAY AND CREE INDIANS IN CANADA.

PAPER, PRICE, 30 CENTS.

A story of intense and thrilling interest.—Onward.

Regarding the work generally it is enough to say it is done in Dr. McLean's best style, and those who are acquainted with his books will need no higher recommendation.—Regina Leader.

Full of interest.—Missionary Outlook.

It tells the story of a long, useful and adventurous career among the Cree and Ojibway Indians.—Toronto Globe.

Worthy of a more prominent dress.—Montreal Witness.

The Destiny of the Human Race.

PAPER, 20 PAGES, PRICE, 15 CENTS.

An interesting example of the growth of language is given by the writer in his account of the first attempts of one of his own children to speak.—Regina Leader.

The pamphlet abounds in entertaining references in the domain of anthropology, or science of man. These are rendered highly valuable and instructive by the author's own ten years' residence amongst the Indians of the Far West, and by his extensive acquaintance with the general literature of anthropology.—Barrie Examiner.

I have read it with very great interest, and feel that considerable light has been thrown on this, the most obscure of subjects.—Horace M. Engle.

I have read it with much interest and pleasure.—J. C. Pilling, Smithsonian Institution.

Lone Land Lights.

CLOTH, 75 PAGES, PRICE, 35 CENTS.

Religious truth in a pointed, pithy and practical form.

The Blackfoot Sun Dance.

PAPER, 7 PAGES, PRICE, 10 CENTS.